Tech Leads & Senior Software Engineers React

Calcey Technologies is a Gartner-recognized software product engineering boutique, building market-leading digital products for enterprise and startup clients across the globe. Calcey's Colombo office requires the services of Tech Leads & Senior Software Engineers - React.

Responsibilities This is a hands-on role that includes planning, designing, coding, debugging, testing, deployment and team leadership. In addition, the position will require interfacing with other internal and external technology stakeholders.

Skills & Qualifications

• High proficiency & hands-on experience in single page application development with React

• 3+ years knowledge of JavaScript and TypeScript

• Experience 3+ years with Redux

• Knowledge and experience in Architectural and Design Patterns

• Thorough in Object-Oriented Design

• Experience with Angular or Ionic will be a plus

• Willingness to learn different programming paradigms, languages and technologies a requirement

Other Requirements

• Ability to understand, adapt initiate, implement processes, and operate in a changing and sometimes undefined environment

• Analytical thinking and planning, communication, problem-solving, good judgment and the ability to influence others positively are required

• Ability to effectively communicate even when the information is sensitive/difficult

• Senior Software Engineers years hands-on industry experience